

THE WORLD NEEDS TALENT. YOUR TALENT.

The talent within you can make a big difference around you. But, first it must be realized. At Kaplan University, we deliver an online learning experience that is customized and flexible, designed so that anyone with talent can develop it. We are an accredited university,* offering more than 100 degrees and programs.

You May Be Closer to Your Degree Than You Think

If you have an associate's or bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university, an advanced start program could be an option for you.† With the advanced start option, you may be able to earn your bachelor's degree in as little as two years.

Prior Learning May Help You Save Time and Money‡

- Greater flexibility of transfer credits—larger pools of open electives may offer a more efficient path to a degree
- Corporate articulation services—corporate training may transfer in as college credit
- Experiential learning—you may be eligible for recognition of work/life experience for college credit
- Universal degree plan—designed to fit the unique requirements of individual students

Kaplan University offers reduced tuition rates for military service members, their spouses, and veterans.

*Kaplan University is regionally accredited. See our website for details.

†Associate's and bachelor's degrees and credits considered to be remedial, occupational, or specialized may not be accepted for transfer.

‡See University Catalog for Transfer of Credit policy.
