

Things You Should Know

To ensure that you have a successful experience while using the Maricopa's Blackboard system, there are some background items that you should understand before you start using the system.

- Your Blackboard username is your MEID.
- Seek out and attend any Blackboard training your campus may offer.
- You will need an e-mail address.
- High speed internet connection is recommended.
- Technology is not infallible; don't wait until the last minute.
- Become familiar with how support works.
- Become familiar with Student Best Practices.
- Your courses won't show up on Blackboard for at least 48 hours after you have paid your tuition.
- Not all courses will be on Blackboard.
- Some courses on Blackboard won't appear to you until the start date.
