	Intergovernmental Agreement Between Scottsdale Community College and Washington Elementary School District	Dr. Harper-Marinick Dr. Jan L. Gehler

Recommendation:

It is recommended that Scottsdale Community College and Washington Elementary School District No. 6 enter into an Intergovernmental Agreement for the provision of College courses. This Agreement shall be effective on October 8, 2008 and expire on June 17, 2009. College will teach the following college courses:

- 1.1.1. EDU 271 - Reading and Decoding
- 1.1.2. EDU 270 - AB Secondary Reading and Decoding
- 1.1.3. EDU 275 - Diagnosis and Remediation of Reading for K-12
- 1.1.4. EDU 279 - Reading Practicum K-12
- 1.1.5. EDU 244 - Reading and Writing in a Structured English Immersion

Justification

This intergovernmental agreement is at the request of Washington Elementary School District. Scottsdale Community College provides five courses leading to a Reading Specialist Endorsement. The courses are taught by Scottsdale Community College faculty and are taught at Washington School District Professional Development Center. No fees are charged for the use of the facilities. Washington School District pays for the tuition and fees for each student for the courses.
