	Contract Between Arizona Department Of Education Child And Adult Food Program And South Mountain Community College Early Childhood Center To Provide Meals For Children Enrolled	Ms. Debra Thompson Dr. Kenneth Atwater

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Governing Board approve a contract with Arizona Department of Education Child and Adult Care Food Program to enable South Mountain Community College to continue to provide meals to children enrolled at no additional cost. Arizona Department of Education Child and Adult Care Food Program will reimburse the Early Childhood Center at the current approved rates for free, reduced and paid meals, effective July 1, 2008 – June 30, 2009.

Justification

Approval of this contract will allow South Mountain Community College Early Childhood Center to continue providing meals to children enrolled at no additional cost. The center would like to be able to assist student in reaching their academic goals by keeping the cost of child care services affordable.
