

Candidate for President Scottsdale Community College

Berton L. Glandon, Ed. D.

---

Dr. Berton L. Glandon's tenure as President of Arapahoe Community College began June 1, 2002. Prior to joining Arapahoe Community College, Dr. Glandon was president of Treasure Valley Community College (TVCC), Ontario, Oregon, for nine years. Dr. Glandon has more than 31 years of community college experience.

Prior to joining TVCC, he was associate dean of instruction and acting dean of faculty at Clark College, Vancouver, WA (1987-93). Working at South Seattle Community College (SSCC) for 11 years, he held a variety of positions including director of the Washington Business Enterprise Program, intern to the dean of instruction, director of Business and Industry Relations, executive director of SSCC Foundation, director of Grants and Contracts, and director of Development and Community Relations. Additionally, he was on faculty at SSCC as an instructor of humanities, restaurant technology, management and supervision.

Dr. Glandon began his career in the private sector working for the Saga Corporation in Menlo Park, California; D.W. Olufs, Inc. in Seattle, Washington; and operating Glandon & Associates.

After receiving a Bachelor of Arts in Business and a Master of Arts in Communication from Western Washington University, Dr. Glandon earned a Doctor of Education in Educational Administration at Brigham Young University.

Dr. Glandon is Chair of the Arapahoe Philharmonic Board and the Lamb Spring Archaeological Preserve Board. He serves as a member of the Board of Arapahoe/Douglas Works, the Colorado Center for Nursing Excellence, Southeast Business Partners, and the Jefferson Economic Development Council. Additionally, Dr. Glandon is a member of the Denver Metro Chamber of Commerce, Highlands Ranch Chamber of Commerce, Littleton Rotary, South Metro Chamber of Commerce, and Castle Rock Economic Development Council.

Dr. Glandon, who prefers to be called "Bert," lives in Highlands Ranch with his wife, Jane. His youngest son, Nick, is currently attending Arapahoe Community College and his eldest son, Dustin, is currently living in Germantown, Maryland with his wife.

*Information provided as submitted by candidate.
February 2008*